

Written Notice of Home Care Consumer Rights

As a consumer of home care and services you are entitled to receive notification of the following rights both orally and in writing. You have the right to exercise the following rights without retribution or retaliation from agency staff:

1. Receive written information concerning the agency's policies on advance directives, including a description of applicable state law;
2. Receive information about the care and services to be furnished, the disciplines that will furnish care, the frequency of proposed visits in advance and receive information about any changes in the care and services to be furnished;
3. Receive care and services from the agency without discrimination based upon personal, cultural or ethnic preference, disabilities or whether you have formulated an advance directive;
4. Authorize a representative to exercise your rights as a consumer of home care;
5. Be informed of the full name, licensure status, staff position and employer of all persons supplying, staffing or supervising the care and services you receive;
6. Be informed and participate in planning care and services and receive care and services from staff who are properly trained and competent to perform their duties;
7. Refuse treatment within the confines of the law and be informed of the consequences of such action;
8. Participate in experimental research only upon your voluntary written consent;
9. Have you and your property to be treated with respect and be free from neglect, financial exploitation, verbal, physical and psychological abuse including humiliation, intimidation or punishment;
10. Be free from involuntary confinement, and from physical or chemical restraints;
11. Be ensured of the confidentiality of all of your records, communications, and personal information and to be informed of the agency's policies and procedures regarding disclosure of clinical information and records;
12. Express complaints verbally or in writing about services or care that is or is not furnished, or about the lack of respect for your person or property by anyone who is furnishing services on behalf of the agency.
